

Broad Support for the Clean Air Act

While corporate polluters and their allies in Congress are trying to rollback the Clean Air Act a broad base of constituencies have voiced support for the landmark public health law and strong safeguards that protect our families and communities. The following is a sampling of diverse organizations that support the Clean Air Act and work already underway to reduce dangerous air pollution.

Click here to view the full list of over 1,100 organizations and over 4,500 scientists, health and business professional that oppose rollbacks to the Clean Air Act.

American Academy of Pediatrics
American Lung Association
American Medical Association
American Nurses Association
American Public Health Association
American Sustainable Business Council
BlueGreen Alliance
Ceres
The Conference of Mayors
Consumers Union
Energy Action Coalition
Environment America
Environmental Defense Fund
The Episcopal Church
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
Jewish Council for Public Affairs
Labor Coalition of Latin American Advancement
League of United Latin American Citizens
League of Woman Voters of the United States
Native American Rights Fund
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)
National Association of Clean Air Agencies
National Association of County and City Health Officials
National Council of Churches
National Wildlife Federation
Natural Resources Defense Council
Operation Free
Physicians for Social Responsibility
Sierra Club
Small Business Majority
Trout Unlimited
United Methodist Church – General Board of Church and Society
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
VoteVets
WEACT for Environmental Justice