

“Thank You, EPA”: Green For All Launches Site In Honor of 40th Anniversary of Environmental Protection Agency

November 30, 2010 – Today Green For All, a national organization dedicated to building an inclusive green economy, launched ThankYouEPA.com. The site highlights key accomplishments of the Environmental Protection Agency since its creation, encouraging visitors to share those successes through social media tools.

On December 2nd, the EPA celebrates its fortieth anniversary. In that time, the EPA’s actions have reduced 60% of dangerous air pollutants in the air we breathe, preventing 205,000 premature deaths, 189,000 cardiovascular hospitalizations and 18 million child respiratory illnesses. The EPA has, through its action, created 30,000 jobs and saved Americans more than $55 million in water and sewer bills.

Green For All’s interactive site, ThankYouEPA.com, allows users to share their favorite EPA accomplishment on their Facebook pages and Twitter feeds.

###

Green For All is a national organization dedicated to building a green economy strong enough to lift Americans out of poverty. The organization works in collaboration with the business, government, labor, and grassroots communities to create and implement programs that increase quality jobs and opportunities in green industry – all while holding the most vulnerable people at the center of its agenda.

To learn more, visit www.greenforall.org.

Ricki Weisberg Ndege
Communications Director
Green For All